What's it like studying with ACCA?

Flexible and supportive – these are the two words our students use to describe the experience of studying with ACCA. We make sure that whatever your lifestyle and commitments, there's a way with ACCA to reach your goals.

You can take a number of different routes – all of which train you through a potent combination of exams, ethics and experience.

Flexibility

You can study full-time – or part-time around work commitments. And we offer a number of ways to study too. You can either:

- find an ACCA Approved Learning Partner via our global network
- self study using ACCA-X, our high quality online learning programme
- learn through a combination of methods.

Support

Once you join, you'll find you have plenty of people to talk to and chat with online to keep you inspired and focused.

ACCA Connect is our 24-hour, seven day a week support service that's open year-round. You can contact Connect by phone, email or webchat – and a dedicated member of the team will be on hand to answer your questions. You can also contact your local ACCA office for support.

For encouragement, ideas and inspiration, you'll also be able to talk to your fellow students around the world through the ACCA virtual learning community. And for support with particular areas – like preparing for exams – you'll have access to fantastic resources on the ACCA website.

English not your first language?

No problem. We offer additional support with English language through our training partner, BPP.

They give you targeted support for each exam you take – and they'll give you the confidence of having up-to-date business English. And it's all free of charge.

Work smarter.

Our whole approach is flexible and convenient – and our exam timetables are no exception.

How?

With innovative computer-based exams (CBEs) we're able to test our students to the same rigorous standards as paper exams using real-life technologies.

CBEs give students an experience that's aligned to the modern workplace. They incorporate primary tools finance professionals use on a daily basis – including spreadsheets and word processors – to assess whether a student is workplace ready.

When?

We offer four exam sessions every year so you can schedule your exams at a time and pace that suits you. You can choose to sit your exams in March, June, September or December.

If you're taking any of our Foundation level exams, these are on-demand - allowing you to sit these at any time of the year at one of our licensed CBE centres. You'll get your results instantly, and can retake them as often as you need.

Where?

We have over 501 exam centres in more than 148 countries – and if you live somewhere particularly remote, we may be able to arrange an alternative exam centre for you.

How long does it take to complete the ACCA Qualification?

This depends on a number of factors, including the number of exemptions you can claim, the number of exams you take every year and what results you achieve. You'll also need to complete your practical experience and the Ethics and Professional Skills module to become an ACCA member.
